Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-14 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claim 11, more particularly defines the method of recording on a magnetic recording disk which comprises a magnetic disk which consists of a substrate, a layer of antiferromagnetic to-ferromagnetic switching material, a layer of ferromagnetic recording material in contact with the switching layer, wherein the switching layer and the recording layer being coupled ferromagnetically at a specific temperature. The method further comprises of heating the recording layer and the switching layer and applying the write field to the heated region. These particulars, combined with the remaining claim elements are not suggested in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure..
